Debt Collection Agency Fees

Insurance Company Denial of Claim

In the event that a client's insurance company denies their claim to cover counseling, the client is responsible to pay their counseling fees out-of-pocket as soon as the client is notified that the insurance company has denied their claim.

In the event that a client accrues an outstanding balance by not paying for sessions that their insurance company has denied, an independent Collection Agency is hired to collect the outstanding debt.

Clients will be required to pay their outstanding debt, plus the Collection Agency fees.

Client Non Payment of Co-Pays, Session Fees and Cancellation Fees

In the event that a client accrues an outstanding balance by not paying for co pays, counseling sessions, and cancellation fees, an independent Collection Agency is hired to collect the outstanding debt.

Clients will be required to pay their outstanding debt, plus the Collection Agency fees.

I understand that if I accrue an outstanding balance, a Collection Agency will be hired to collect my debt. I will be required to pay the Collection Agency fees in addition to my outstanding debt.
